Why Derako solid wood systems?

Wood is a natural product that is alive, it breaths and with its own the orientation, engineering, design, logistic and implementation phases. Among other things with variable wood sizes, curved, arched or CNC shapes. With ingenious patented clips and clever assembly the systems can be fitted quickly and efficiently.

Tired of rummaging around the shop for the right scroll saw blade? Dean Larson's lighthouse "Logscapes" unlock the inner beauty of humble pine. Our team of eight completed the very scenic course at Bramham Park on Sunday, raising some money for Cancer Research on the way. Here's the team enjoying themselves early in the evening - the later photos have fortunately gone missing

Music is based on nine-tones scale in which one octave is divided into nine equal parts. The company's hugely-popular flagship store is situated in the centre of the Market Square in Stow-on-the-Wold, and draws tens of thousands of visitors each year from all over the world. New display area December : We have created a new entrance area to the Sitting Firm workshops where there is space to display some of our classic pieces, along with drawings, new designs and work-in-progress.
