To know him was to know God; to love him was to love God. His sincerity is based on confidence, not in his own illusions about himself, but in the endless, unfailing mercy of God. Paul exalted love as the highest standard in this letter to the church in Corinth. This is an amazing love, because we are the ones who choose to reject God, yet it's God who mends the separation through His intense personal sacrifice, and all we have to do is accept His gift.
