The journey, just like the media it criticized, was always entertaining, even when it was troubling. The Beat. It was always going to be around 20 issues, not all stories need to go on forever.

But as it went along, it became all one long story, instead, but with the structure of a novel. Christel she got it all, the looks, the spice, the un-meltable ice, And those false compliments with her french accent No love for this otaku assassin, pulls me up just to send me crashing. Indifference is Kill or Be Killed, if it doesn't bother you Take what you can - then leave Cos there's no more heroes, yeah, there's no more heroes Nowhere to go for your jedi-minded egos No more heroes, yeah, no more heroes There's nowhere to go, for your jedi-minded egos. What was the letterer thinking?

Enough blood to fill a bucket spills across the pages begot of a plethora of brutality and Phillips combine to create a dark synergy of pulp noir.
