Perhaps, like so many Western names, it means. As always at this season, cool evening breezes are drawn over the city from the sea, toward the warm land mass of China; and the draperies billow out from the glass doors to the veranda of the large house on Avenue Joffre in the French Concession.

With deafening roar of motor, grinding of gears, and outspewing of filthy exhaust. For example, at least since Charles Deane wrote "Smith was a true knight errant," 23 Smith has been so labeled. The period during which gossip of the kind above quoted was common— that is to say, during which Roman Jack's courtship hung fire— was shortened in a way not common in real life, but often to be met with in romances.

Indeed, the strategies that she and her entourage developed in these early years of research into John Smith's life and writings has brought to the editor's attention a number of these minor variations; these are noted in the Textual Annotation by the addition of the phrase "in some copies," without any further specificity.
